Trees Inc. will receive $75,000 for tree planting in Terre Haute, the state announced Tuesday.

In total, the Indiana Department of Natural Resources Division of Forestry has awarded $1.5 million in grants to nine communities to support tree planting and maintenance, workforce development, education and tree inventory projects.

The projects were selected by the DNR's Community and Urban Forestry program and are funded through the U.S. Department of Agriculture Forest Service Urban & Community Forestry program.

Other communities and organizations receiving the USDA funds were Canopy Bloomington, $239,399; city of Jeffersonville, $63,500; city of New Albany, $250,000; city of Noblesville, $106,150; Regreening Greenfield, $50,000; Evansville Forest Alliance, $249,616; Indiana Arborist Association, $250,000; Keep Indianapolis Beautiful, $239,457; TREES Inc., $75,000.
