

RESOLUTION 15, 2024

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF TERRE HAUTE, INDIANA:

WHEREAS, we recognize improvements in work site conditions since the passing of the Occupational Safety and Health Act, commonly known as OSHA, in 1971; and

WHEREAS, we remain committed to the ongoing advocacy of labor activists in our city to continue improving workplace quality thorough regular inspections and high standards of health and safety measures; and

WHEREAS, we come together today to increase awareness that job site injuries, illness and fatalities are not simply accidents, but are often avoidable and preventable; and

WHEREAS, we support the call for good jobs, safe jobs and the protection of worker rights, and we pledge to continue seeking ways to make this aspiration a reality; and

WHEREAS, we honor the legacy of Eugene Victor Debs, who was proud to call Terre Haute his home and was ahead of his time in his vision of equality and justice; and

WHEREAS, above all, here at the local level, we must be conscious of the invisible, most vulnerable workers in our midst;

NOW THEREFORE BE IS RESOLVED, we, the Terre Haute City Council, join city and county government leaders all over the United States who are gathering as we are today to proclaim Sunday, April 28, 2024, to be

Workers Memorial Day
