Rollcall

Public Comment on Non-Agenda Items (30 mins)

1. Fred Myers, brother of former Softball Commissioner Wayne Myers, request that Dreiser Street be listed as a Wayne Myers Memorial Way.
2. Councilman Pat Ralston commented he had spoken with Mr. Myers and explained to him about also approaching the Park Board.
3. Councilman Rich Dunkin suggested another street be considered rather than Dreiser Street.
4. Paul May, Mike's Auto Wrecking, spoke concerning the secondhand dealers scrap metal ordinance. He stated the company was having trouble financing the software they needed. Mr. May also stated the ordinance the Council passed only stated the businesses needed to file their daily records; not file their records daily. He commented that two detectives had issued him a warning for not complying with the new requirements.
5. Councilman President Neil Garrison asked if the businesses were required to take photographs of every vehicle that sold scrap metal. He was informed that the businesses were required to do so.
6. Councilman Norm Loudermilk asked the City Attorney, Chou-il Lee, to review ordinance to make any necessary changes.
