Paragraph Text*:

I am handicap and require an in home nurse to deliver me necessary iv fluids and medication. However constantly the couple next door who owns 3 cars takes up 6 spots between all three cars on the street including both of mine. It takes me 3-6 months to get the in home care approved but if they can't find parking I can't get the care and they cancel my case. I am a single mom, my husband is dead, I live on this care and without it (being immune compromised) I become severely high risk with 30+ er visits a year. I would like some kind of handicap sign in front of my house for at least one of the two parking spots they consistently keep taking up both with one car. I don't know what I need to get this but ASAP would be great because if I don't get the care I need my son becomes an orphan.
