

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: in Federal fiscal year 2020, 3.9 million reports were made to child protective services; and
- WHEREAS: child abuse and neglect is a serious problem affecting every segment of our community; and
- WHEREAS: our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of the City of Terre Haute; and
- WHEREAS: child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that have lasting consequences for victims of abuse; and
- WHEREAS: protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional, and developmental well-being of children; and
- WHEREAS: effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the partnerships created between child welfare professionals, education, health, community and faith-based organizations, businesses, law enforcement agencies and families; and
- WHEREAS: communities must make every effort to promote programs and activities that create strong and thriving children and families; and
- WHEREAS: we acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and contribute to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable and nurturing environment; and
- WHEREAS: prevention remains the best defense for our children and families.

NOW, THEREFORE: I, Duke A Bennett, Mayor of the City of Terre Haute, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 2022 as in Terre Haute, Indiana and urge all citizens to recognize this month by dedicating ourselves to the task of improving the quality of life for all children and families.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the City of Terre Haute to be affixed this 4th day of April, 2022.

Duke A Bennett, Mayor
